

Two Local Youths Held in Mississippi

DIAL-A-DEVOTION now sponsored by the First Christian church of Harrisburg. Rev. Glen Daugherty, church pastor, will prepare a new devotion each day, which may be heard by dialing CL 3-3341.

First Christian Church Installs Dial-a-Devotion

The First Christian church of Harrisburg is now sponsoring Dial-A-Devotion program for Harrisburg and community.

By dialing CL 3-3341 anytime day or night a person may listen to an inspirational devotion, approximately one minute in length. Rev. Glen Daugherty, church pastor, will prepare a new devotion daily and the change will be made at 9 a. m. each day.

"What is the purpose of Dial-A-Devotion?" Rev. Daugherty asks, then answers, "We are living at a critical time in history and under great pressure; therefore, we need to walk daily with the Lord and use the power that is available in Him."

"It is our purpose to lead you daily in a moment of devotion that will let you tap the power of God and therefore make the day a little more pleasant for you."

Rev. Daugherty encourages everyone to use Dial-A-Devotion each day.

Dial-A-Devotion is a comparatively new use of the machine known as a secretary, which is connected with a telephone line. The devotion is a tape recording and in this instance will be a devotion by Rev. Daugherty. The telephone line CL 3-3341 is a direct connection with the machine which is automatically turned on with the dialing and "speaks" into the telephone line.

Admit to FBI Burglary and Theft of Auto

Two youths believed to have been responsible for a number of Harrisburg burglaries were captured yesterday afternoon in Mississippi.

They are George Goolsby, 16, and Calvin Miller, 13, both of Harrisburg, who are being held at New Albany, Miss.

They admitted to Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, Sheriff William T. Barrett said, to robbing a garage at Marion and taking a 1955 Oldsmobile, the car they were in when arrested.

They also admitted to the FBI that they entered the Vaughn and Culum Phillip's service station and Routes 34-45 intersection east of Harrisburg. In this Dec. 29 burglary three new tires, a used tire and tube, four cartons of cigarettes and other items.

After extensive investigation by Harrisburg Police Chief Ross Lane and his police force and Sheriff Barrett and his deputies, it was believed that these two boys had taken part in a number of the recent burglaries and when the officers learned the two had left Harrisburg for Miami, Florida, several days ago in a yellow and white Oldsmobile, warrants for their arrest were mailed to authorities there.

However, Barrett stated, the two had been to Florida and left before the warrants arrived.

The FBI informed the local officers yesterday afternoon that the two had been picked up by Mississippi state troopers after they had obtained gasoline at Tupelo, Miss., and drove away without paying for it.

The FBI said the two had admitted a school burglary in Florida, that they had stolen several cars in and around Harrisburg and had abandoned them after driving them around, that they had shot out a number of street lights in Harrisburg.

Barrett said that he had given the FBI a list of recent Harrisburg burglaries to question the boys about, that he and Chief Lane might make a trip to Mississippi to question the boys themselves.

The boys had two pistols, the FBI said, adding that the two told the officers they had planned to use them in armed robberies but had lost their nerve when the time came.

Besides the pistols, the boys had two bricks in the car. The local officers said they believed the arrest of these two would solve a number of break-ins.

Yesterday three local boys, Darrell Duke, Carl Fleming and Don Sheldon, were arraigned before Justice of the Peace O. L. Woods on complaints charging them with burglary. They waived preliminary hearing and were bound over to the next grand jury. Their bonds were set at $1,000 each.

This morning three Harrisburg youths, John Pierson, Larry Kuppert and Robert Clark, pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace O. L. Woods to charges of destruction of public property and were fined $120 each. They were charged with taking and breaking open six parking meters New Year's Eve.

Brake Trouble Causes Mishap

Nobody was injured but there was considerable damage as the result of a collision involving three motor vehicles at Stonefort Thursday afternoon.

State Trooper Jerome Turner said a car driven by Elma Bethel, 57, Marion, had brake trouble and left Route 45, hitting a parked pickup truck and knocking the truck into an auto, also parked.

Officer Turner said that Mrs. Bethel was driving north and she told him that she intended to stop in Stonefort to see about getting some brake fluid. She said she applied the brakes, found they were not working and ran off the road, striking the pickup parked near Greer's cafe, belonging to Earl W. Morse of Harrisburg, which in turn hit a car owned by Paul F. Whitaker of Cairo.

Also struck was a sign pole at the cafe. The car stopped straddling a concrete abutment.

Turner said investigation showed Mrs. Bethel's car had a broken brakeline which had not been caused by the collision.

Monroney Blasts Action as Extravagant

Jet is Assigned to Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) today angrily blasted as "extravagant and dangerous" the conversion of a Strategic Air Command (SAC) KC-135 jet tanker into a "cross-country taxi" for Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

He also hit at President Eisenhower's personal planes and helicopters.

Monroney, chairman of the Senate aviation subcommittee, declared the 550-mile an hour plane for Nixon was urgently needed to refuel SAC's hydrogen-bomb carrying B-52s and B-47s — the nation's chief defensive weapons against Russia.

In a statement, Monroney said he doubted SAC had a "sufficient supply" of the jet tankers at present to afford giving one away. The senator said he had demanded in a telegram to Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy to know "by what authority the Air Force could furnish the vice president with the latest, most expensive and most urgently-needed jet transport."

A spokesman for Nixon, who was in New York today, said Thursday the multi-million dollar plane had been offered for the vice president's use "when it is practical to do so."

Ten are available in the current school year; 20 may be awarded in each of the next two years; and the rest will be available in the fourth year.

John Hosner, SIU forestry specialist, says qualified applicants will still be considered for this year's one remaining scholarship.

Four oil well drilling permits have been issued recently at Springfield for drilling operations in Saline county.

The permits: To C. E. Brehm Drilling and Producing Co., Mt. Vernon, Ill., for the Barnhill No. 2, NW SW SE, 20-7S-5E (Tate);

The spokesman said Nixon could make overseas or domestic trips in half the time it takes other transports with the KC-135 "speckled trout" which LeMay piloted from Buenos Aires to Washington in 11 hours and five minutes last November.

But Monroney declared he was in favor of Nixon using some of

Historical Group To Hear Talk On Geology of Area

Addison Hapeman of Woodlawn, Ill., will be the guest speaker at the Jan. 7 meeting of the Saline County Historical society which will be held in the lower rooms of the Mitchell-Carnegie Library in Harrisburg at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Hapeman's talk will concern the geology and archaeology of southern Illinois. He is an amateur geologist and archaeologist of considerable experience combining the enthusiasm of the amateur with the knowledge obtained by exploring the hills and valleys of southern Illinois. He has a pleasing voice and dry wit which enhances his remarks on these subjects to which he devotes a great deal of time. He is a farmer by occupation but finds time to pursue many interests besides the two mentioned. He takes many pictures of the wild flowers of this section of the state for photography is another hobby in which he excels.

Those interested in the unusual geological formation of southern Illinois and the prehistoric men that inhabited it will find Mr. Hapeman's talk both enjoyable and instructive. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

John W. Brown, director of the Eldorado Art Center, will open the evening's program by singing "Take What the Desert Offers," by Lily Strickland. Mr. Brown will be accompanied by Miss Ruth Hamilton, also of Eldorado.

Mrs. J. M. Burley is chairman of the social hour following the program. Mrs. Clarence Bosket and Mrs. William Farley are the other members of her committee.

A&P Official Dies

RIDGEWOOD, N. J. — Franklin F. Stover, 63, secretary and director of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., died Friday at Valley Hospital here following a brief illness.

The minister found the bodies of Mrs. Truax and Goodrich sprawled in the kitchen. Nearby were two shotguns, one a 20-gauge and the other a 12-gauge. Upstairs in a bedroom was the body of the girl.

Dr. Frank Sweeney, Morrow County coroner, said the girl died of a blast in the head from a 20-gauge shotgun, apparently while she slept. He said she apparently died some time before the others.

Sweeney said it was determined from notes left by Mrs. Truax that she killed her daughter. In a note to her husband, Sweeney said, the mother said she did "something

Polish Mathematical Scientist Pledges Brain Power to America

Granted Asylum in U. S. After Wife, Daughter Flee Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Polish mathematical wizard Dr. Jerzy Leon Nowinski, who defected from Communist laboratories, pledged his high power brain to America today in the great missile race with Russia.

"I am ready and willing to make whatever contribution I can to the United States," the 52-year-old scientist said. Nowinski, well acquainted with Russian advances in research, is an expert theoretical researcher on thermo-elasticity. This is a science in the stress and strains of metals and other materials when subjected to high speed — a key one for the builders of ocean-spanning ballistic missiles and space ships of the future.

Expert In Re-Entry Problem

It also deals in the same cone problem of missile re-entry into the earth's atmosphere.

The granting of asylum to Nowinski after his wife and daughter had succeeded in fleeing from behind the Iron Curtain to England was disclosed Friday by attorney general William P. Rogers.

When his family escaped, Nowinski was in Baltimore lecturing at Johns Hopkins University. He had been a research professor at the University of Warsaw for seven years.

Disappointed With Poland "I was disappointed by the political, moral and religious conditions in Poland after the war," Nowinski told a news conference. He said he chose asylum because he wanted to educate his daughter, Kristina, 7, in an atmosphere of freedom.

The scientist said he had little first hand knowledge of Russia's Sputniks and rockets. But Rogers said he was familiar with Russian research.

Officials at Johns Hopkins indicated Nowinski would be an invaluable addition to the nation's all-out scientific effort.

Man and Woman Fatally Shoot Her Daughter, Then Kill Themselves

MOUNT GILEAD, Ohio (AP) — A man and woman, described as "pillars in their church," shot and killed her daughter and then themselves Friday, leaving notes which said "We can't go on this way."

Sheriff Frank I. Giffen said today. The bodies of Foye Goodrich, 41, Mrs. Doris Truax, 34, and her daughter, Diane, 9, were found in the Truax home by the Rev. Herschel Roper, pastor of the Mount Gilead First Baptist Church.

Roper said he had gone to take Mrs. Truax, mother of three, to the church where she served as Roper's secretary, about 1 p. m.

The minister found the bodies of Mrs. Truax and Goodrich sprawled in the kitchen. Nearby were two shotguns, one a 20-gauge and the other a 12-gauge. Upstairs in a bedroom was the body of the girl.

Dr. Frank Sweeney, Morrow County coroner, said the girl died of a blast in the head from a 20-gauge shotgun, apparently while she slept. He said she apparently died some time before the others.

Sweeney said it was determined from notes left by Mrs. Truax that she killed her daughter. In a note to her husband, Sweeney said, the mother said she did "something else terrible upstairs."

Sweeney said Mrs. Truax was shot by a 12-gauge shotgun and Goodrich by a 20-gauge shotgun, both in the chest.

Goodrich was clerk in the church and a former Sunday school superintendent. The father of three sons, he operated a farm about eight miles away.

Families of the two were stunned by the tragedy.

Mrs. Truax is survived by her husband, Lowell, who was at work in a local hydraulic plant at the time, and by two children, Bruce, and Patty, 4.

Father of Four Killed by Train

PEAVERVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Charles R. Dorsey, 31, Crescent City, a father of four children, was killed Friday when his car was struck by the Big Four Railroad line's James Whitcomb Riley passenger train.

Dorsey was employed as an insurance adjuster by the Western Adjustment Co. of Kankakee.

Action Follows Futile Attempt At Reconciliation

Former Communist Writes His Final Chapter in Blood

NEW YORK (AP) — Howard Rushmore, an ex-Communist and former editor of Confidential Magazine, wrote the final chapter of his life in blood Friday night when he murdered his attractive blonde wife and shot himself to death in a speeding taxicab.

The shootings occurred just two blocks from the police station Mrs. Rushmore had told the taxi driver to take her to after her husband forced his way into the cab.

Police said Rushmore's wife, Frances, 37, a cover girl during her modeling career, died of bullet wounds in the head and neck.

Rushmore, 45, died after he fired one shot into his right temple. Armed With Gun, Knife

The murder and suicide climaxed a futile reconciliation attempt. Rushmore apparently attended the meeting with his wife armed with a .32 caliber pistol and an 8-inch commando knife, police said.

Rushmore still clutched the pistol in his right hand when police examined the two bodies sprawled in the back of the taxicab. The commando knife was found strapped to his side.

Cab driver Edward Pearlman, 37, told police Mrs. Rushmore hailed his cab shortly after 7 p. m., e.s.t. He said she got into the cab and tried to close the door but Rushmore forced his way in saying: "I'm her husband, don't worry about it."

Ordered Husband Out "I don't want any part of him. We're separated," Mrs. Rushmore snapped back. Then she told her husband to "get out," Pearlman said.

Rushmore, however, refused and told her to tell the cab driver where she wanted to go. "Take me to the station house," Mrs. Rushmore said.

Pearlman said he headed for the nearest police station. The Rushmores, meantime, were arguing bitterly. It was then that Rushmore apparently reached into his coat pocket and brought out the pistol. Mrs. Rushmore screamed, "Oh, my God!"

Wife Sprawled On Seat A series of shots rang out. When Pearlman looked around briefly he saw the woman sprawled on the rear seat with blood streaming from her head and neck.

The cabbie then floored the accelerator and sped the last two blocks to the station house. Before he arrived there another shot rang out in the cab.

The Rushmores were married eight years ago when both were employees of the New York Journal-American. He had one daughter by a previous marriage and she had two daughters by a previous union.

They separated two days before Christmas when Mrs. Rushmore moved out of their apartment with her younger, unmarried daughter. Rushmore admittedly was a member of the Communist party and was a writer for the Daily Worker for about three years.

He said he broke with the party and the paper when he was prevented from writing a favorable review of the motion picture "Gone With the Wind."

For 15 years after that he was one of the chief anti-Red writers for the Journal-American.

He also served as a special investigator of the Senate subcommittee headed by the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) which was investigating Communism.

Later he became an editor of Confidential and testified as a prosecution witness at the magazine's recent trial in California. At the trial Rushmore testified he could not take the type of material publisher Robert Harrison wanted him to print.

Delayed Harvest and Oil Strength Boosting Soybean Prices

URBANA—Lower market receipts, delayed harvest in Iowa and Minnesota and stronger soybean oil prices have given the soybean market a steady if not spectacular boost in recent weeks, the University of Illinois grain marketing staff reports. Prices are now 6 to 8 cents a bushel higher than in early November and at about the loan level in most Illinois counties.

This price strength has come in the face of another record crop.
The latest government estimate shows a crop of 491 million bushels, 4 million bushels above the forecast in October.

Market receipts of soybeans have declined to about half of what they were in early November. The grain market staff reports some fear that unharvested beans in Iowa and Minnesota may be lost because of bad weather.

The rise in soybean oil price is equivalent to about 2 1/2 cents per bushel of soybeans. Partly responsible for this price improvement is wet weather in the cotton belt. Cotton seed oil supplies, which compete with soybean oil, were expected to be about 12 per cent below last year on November 1.

Whether soybean prices can improve further will depend largely on a further rise in soybean oil price and the narrowing of processing margins. Processing margins are now 4 cents a bushel lower than last year. Soybean prices will gain from this source only if processing supplies are short.

The future for soybean oil is more difficult to see because exports are so important. Last year 36 percent of our total production of soybean and cotton seed oil was sold abroad. Much of it was sold under special export subsidies, especially Public Law 480. At present, allocations for oil under this program are disappointing.

Take Care of Your Tractor This Winter

Farm tractors used only occasionally in the winter need special care, according to Wendell Bowers, farm machinery specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Tractors that do not get proper care may wear more from occasional winter use than from a full season of field work, Bowers says.

If you will be using your tractor to do light belt work, haul manure, or do other odd jobs throughout the winter, give it the care it deserves by following these steps:

1. Clean the tractor thoroughly, especially the engine. Cleaning will prevent moisture from accumulating and insure fast starting in cold weather.

2. Be sure the cooling system is properly protected by anti-freeze, or drain the entire system each time the tractor is used.

3. Change all lubricants to the proper winter grades as recommended by the tractor manufacturer. The air cleaner, crankcase, transmission and hydraulic and power steering systems all need attention.

4. Keep the fuel tank filled with the proper seasonal fuel to prevent moisture condensation.
5. Be sure the electrical system is in good condition. The battery must be kept fully charged to prevent freezing and insure fast starts. Spark plugs often need cleaning or replacing after the fall rush.

6. Once a tractor motor is started, do not stop it until it is fully warmed up. Keep the tractor in a dry shed when not in use.

Harvest haste, long working hours and the revolving gears, belts, shafts and snapping mechanisms of harvesting equipment make it easy for a careless farmer to have an accident, says a University of Illinois safety specialist.

Illinois farm population is estimated to be down slightly from the 1955 figure of 690,000.

LAMCOATS—On western sheep ranches from California to as far east as Wisconsin, where losses of new-born lambs normally run up to 40 per cent, plastic coats have helped reduce death rates. Called Lamcoats, and made of vinyl plastic, they serve to keep the lambs warm and dry, and hold in body heat. The snug-fitting coat is slipped over the head of the new-born lamb, and the forelegs are placed in front of the elastic bellyband that holds the coat in place. The coat can be shed if caught on brush by means of break-away seams. The special seams also enable the lamb to shed the coat in about two weeks or when it reaches a weight of 18 to 20 pounds.

Notes From Farm Adviser

L. B. Kimmel

Farmers calling at my office the past week are looking forward to another crop year and making of his neighbors watch his farming operations and do the things he does. This farm adviser believes that this is a form of teaching, just a good job and not saying too much about it. We all can see what pays off. In other words, Mr. Heck is putting back into his soil what he takes out in crops, possibly a little more and doing some of the things he learns at Pat Johnson's meetings.

I think this is a good year to make your appraisal of grain sor-ghums. The wet fall has left most of them in the field unharvested.
Some economist has stated that he doubts much interest in grain sorghum next year. Sorghums for silage is another crop and likely to remain popular to replace corn where farmers stay within corn allotments and need silage.

There are many things to cause people in general to become discouraged. Much of the news in papers, on broadcasts, on radio or TV is not the type to make us optimistic.

I feel it is time we heard what is good about you, our country, its people and let us hear about some of the good things people do. Unfortunately this is not the type that sells newspapers.

I think we have a lot of good things going on and many good people. I can say that the 4-H leaders, community workers and most of us can be worthwhile and happy if we direct our efforts to helping others.

We must have confidence and faith in ourselves and work to farm or do anything worthwhile. I suppose we should stop to think and analyze what we hear that's bad news and see if we believe all of it.

Curly Look Out For '58, Hair Dressers Say

NEW YORK (AP) — That girl with the curl down the middle of her forehead no longer is fashionable. Now, she wears a bang, a wisp, or what one stylist called "ribbon-y strands."

Hairdressers, looking into the shape and length of coiffures for the new year, predicted woman's crowning glory will be everything from cap smooth to down-right tousled. It depends on which hairdresser is forecasting.

But there seems general agreement that waves will rule, the curly look is out, hair will remain short, and American women won't take to the "eggbeater" look which originated in Paris, unless it is modified.

Long Vs. Short
"One thing is sure. Women can't wear long, drippy hair with the chemise silhouette and shorter skirts of the new season," said Ruel, styles director for Coiffures Americana, which operates a chain of salons in department stores.

His shops will feature a 1958 interpretation of the 1920s look, with uneven wisps of hair brushed onto the forehead. Ruel said hair will be ear-tip length, fuller at the sides, and will have some height at the crown. It will be cut in layers for that ribbon effect.

Waves Predicted
The Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Assn. predicted "Waves — Lots of them." Bangs will continue, it said. Its members will feature "cleaner, smoother hair" than last year's, with an upward lift to the lines.
"Hair styles will have to stress femininity this year, to combat some of the shapeless clothes," said a spokesman.

By contrast, it is the tousled look for Charles of the Ritz customers — "Hair almost as casual as the hairdo the late Amelia Earhart wore," said a spokesman. "Short, with softness around the face, however. Very little curl, some wave, and smooth at the crown."

Nation Begins To Shake Off Bitter Cold Wave
By United Press
The nation today began to shake off a bitter two-day cold wave which had stretched from the Rockies to the Atlantic and as far south as the Gulf while Florida surveyed the damage caused by 70-mile-an-hour winds and heavy rain.

Dade County Florida farmers flooded several million dollars in loss, wind-torn crops which a week ago had been regarded as "pure gold" after escaping a mid-December freeze.

Migrant workers were hard hit by the winter storm which left them without jobs and without funds.

Elsewhere southerly winds and massive high pressure areas began forcing sub-zero cold back across the Canadian border throughout the Plains although the Upper Mississippi and Ohio Valleys and New England were still in the grip of the big freeze.

Temperatures skidded to below the freezing mark as far south as the Alabama-Mississippi Gulf coast before the cold wave began to break.

Overheated stoves touched off a rash of fires, particularly in the South, and eight persons were dead in four fires in Virginia.

At Waterloo, Iowa, 10-below weather hampered firemen fighting a $250,000 supermarket blaze.

Chicago firemen continued to pour water into an abandoned cold storage warehouse which has been burning since Wednesday. Steam hoses were rigged to clear equipment of ice which sheathes the building and the surrounding area.

A national debt of $10,000,000 was incurred under the Articles of Confederation.

With government expenses on the way up, the total budget probably will rise to about 74 billion dollars, from the current rate of about 72 billion.

Kitty Under House Turns Out To Be Bobcat
CLINTON, Tenn. (AP) — Charlie Phillips will hesitate the next time his wife tells him to fetch the little kitty out from under the house.

He crawled under his home Friday at his wife's bidding and the "ordinary cat" turned out to be a snarling bobcat which charged and hit Phillips head-on.

"It was like being hit by a load of bricks," he said. "I was knocked at least 20 feet. When I got up I grabbed the cat by the throat and hind legs and started choking him."

After about 11 minutes, Phillips finally killed the cat with the help of Louis Patterson of Ft. Wayne, Ind., who planted his foot on the bobcat's middle, while Phillips and his opponent wrestled.

The bobcat got his claws in before he died. Phillips was scratched on the hands and chest but was not seriously injured.

Johnson Seeks All the Facts in Gaither Report

White House Refuses Copy to Senate Probers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators moving into secret hearings on the nation's defenses vowed today to get "all the facts" in the Gaither report suppressed by the White House.

Senate Democratic Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson said his preparedness subcommittee would start questioning key witnesses Monday to determine the contents of the secret report—said to recommend an enormous defense increase to stave off "catastrophe" from Russia's missile might.

The White House refused to hand over the report on the ground that it was prepared for President Eisenhower and the National Security Council. But Johnson said he would still try to obtain a copy, although he knew of no way to compel the President to divulge a confidential communication.

"I have good reason to believe that we are already in possession of most of the information in the report and can — through testimony — develop the balance," he said.

Rear Adm. Hyman Rickover, head of the Navy's atomic powered submarine program, will be the lead-off witness when the investigation resumes behind closed doors.

Other defense officials will testify along with top industry officials. Subcommittee sources said the latter would undoubtedly include rocket experts of the Convair and Martin Aircraft Companies. But no names were disclosed.

Johnson said all information would be made public later that national security would permit.

At the same time the Air Force disclosed it had set up the first two squadrons to man the Jupiter and Thor 1,500-mile intermediate range ballistic missile (IRBM) bases to be set up next fall or early next year in England.

The Air Force said the 62nd Strategic Missile Squadron (SMS) to operate the Thor and the 864th SMS for the Jupiter would be "in training status and will not be equipped for some time."

Plasters and Peavler are members of Company I, 130th Infantry Regiment, 33rd Illinois National Guard Division at West Frankfort.

They will take a jeep along on the swing through four southern Illinois counties, with one riding and the other walking.

Another high school senior, Larry Yates, 18, marched with Plasters last year but has since enlisted in the Air Force.

The schedule of this year's hike is as follows: Monday, Du Quoin to Carbondale; Tuesday, Carbondale to Carterville to Marion; Wednesday, Marion to Johnston City to Herrin; Thursday, Herrin to Zeigler to Christopher; and Friday, Christopher to Benton to West Frankfort.

County and city March of Dimes chairmen along the route will cooperate in the fund collections which will be gathered in buckets.

A Marine recruiting sergeant, Dick Mitchell, made the first Southern Illinois polio march in 1955. Another Marine, Phillip Hobbs, made the hike in 1956.

American and European designers will create a wardrobe — all cotton of course — for the new maid to model on her jaunt.

The new maid has brown eyes, weighs 130 pounds and says she has no steady boyfriend.

23 States Raise Out-of-Work Pay

CHICAGO (AP)—Out-of-work benefits were raised by nearly half of the nation's states this year, a national reporting authority on tax and business law revealed.

Commerce Clearing House said a state-by-state survey of current unemployment legislation disclosed 23 states boosted the maximum benefits available to jobless by an average of $5 a week. One other state, it said, provided a large total by increasing duration of payments.

The jobless pay boosts ranged from Wyoming's increase of $11 to Michigan's hike of $1 for dependents.

Other 1957 raises in maximum payments to the unemployed were: Idaho $10, Colorado $9, Connecticut and Missouri $8 each; Nevada $7.50, California $7 and Montana $6.

States raising benefits $5 a week were Illinois, Maryland, Minnesota and Oregon. Florida and Nebraska raised payments to $4 each while Alabama, Indiana, Maine and South Dakota provided $3 boosts.

Raises of $2 were put into effect by Kansas, North Carolina, Utah and Wisconsin.

Oklahoma increased the duration of benefits by four weeks to a maximum of 26 weeks, although it did not raise the weekly payment. Maine and Missouri, in addition to increasing the top weekly payments, raised the maximum duration to 26 weeks, while Montana raised it to 22 weeks.

Dixie Redhead Reigns as 1958 Maid of Cotton

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Miss Jean Carter, 20, a beautiful redhead from the middle of Dixie, today reigned as the 1958 Maid of Cotton.

The new maid, a Vanderbilt University cheerleader whose home is in Atlanta, won out Friday night over 20 finalists from 11 states. Blonde Alice Condon, 21, of Memphis was chosen first runner-up and brunette Ruth Ann Bennett, 20, of Hartsville, S. C., was named second alternate.

Two Guardsmen To Begin 100-Mile March for Polio

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (AP)—Two strong-limbed young National Guard volunteers will set out Monday on a five-day, 100-mile hike for polio crippled youngsters.

Cpl. Jerry Plasters, 21, made a similar march last year and helped collect more than $1,900 for the March of Dimes. He will be joined in the split-time march by Pfc. Tom Peavler, 18, a high school senior. They are shooting for a goal of $2,000.

Plasters and Peavler are members of Company I, 130th Infantry Regiment, 33rd Illinois National Guard Division at West Frankfort.

With Miss Carter's crown goes an international tour to promote good will on behalf of the cotton industry. She will be on the go for about six months.

American and European designers will create a wardrobe — all cotton of course — for the new maid to model on her jaunt.

The new maid has brown eyes, weighs 130 pounds and says she has no steady boyfriend.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of Linda Lou Hull, whose passing was on Jan. 5, 1948:
No stain was on her little heart,
Sin did not enter there;
And innocence slept sweetly on,
That pale white brow so fair,
She was too pure for this cold earth.
Too beautiful to stay,
And so God's holy angel bore
Our darling one away.
Sadly missed by parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hull, and sister, Mary Ann. *158-1

Title of Miss New Year at Vincennes

Mrs. Ruby Bailey, whose pho-tograph of her granddaughter, Kyla Jo Fleck, was so striking that it won the baby title, Miss New Year, at Vincennes, Ind., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hicks, RFD 2, Harrisburg. Mrs. Bailey is a professional photographer living in Vincennes, Ind., and the picture appeared on the front page of the Vincennes Sun-Commercial newspaper on Jan. 1.

The cousin of little Kyla Jo, Judith Ann Cazal of Bruceville, RFD 1, Indiana, was the most likely candidate for the winner of the 1958 Derby winner for the Vincennes area. Judith Ann, born at 2:53 a. m. Wednesday in the Good Samaritan hospital in Vincennes, is the daughter of Airman and Mrs. Kenneth Cazal. The mother is 19 years old and the father received word of his daughter's birth at Brooks Air Force Base near San Antonio, Texas.

Developed Vaccine
One of the first effective vaccines for protection against whooping cough was developed and standardized in Michigan State Health Department laboratories.

Black coral once was abundant in the Persian Gulf, but now is found chiefly along the Australian Barrier Reef.

Helicopter Available To Nixon; Five Are Assigned to White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special helicopter landing pad has been established near Richard M. Nixon's home to enable the vice president to flee the capital in minutes after a national defense alert.

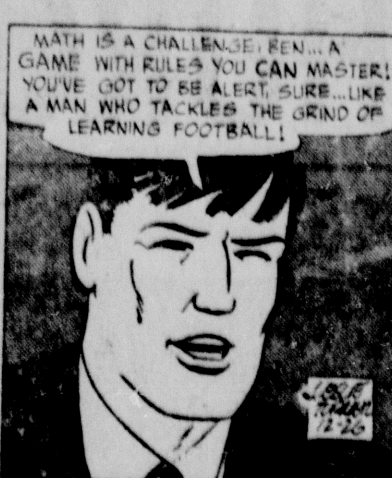

It also was learned today that five big new helicopters, under a program put in effect Jan. 1, have been assigned to the White House on an around-the-clock basis.

Officials told the United Press that the new service was set up to provide transportation in event of a surprise attack.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

SUFFERING helps to keep people humble. Mental turmoil warns men not to think that they are the complete masters of their lives. Physical pain keeps folk from committing errors toward their bodies. Everyone could have less pain if he cut down on his sins against the body and the mind. The sins against the body are easy to observe. We may not want to protect our bodies as God would have us do, but we do know how our waywardness has made us suffer physical discomfort. Our sins of the mind are almost as obvious as the sins against the body. Our spiritual failures would be just as clear as our other shortcomings if we used the spiritual standards which God has established for our use. We must seek God's direction of our lives if we are going to eliminate suffering. As we humbly recognize our faults we become ready to seek God's help and accept it.

Jackie Potter, Former Corporal in Army, Enlists in U. S. Navy

A former corporal in the Army, Jackie N. Potter, of 801 West Church, Harrisburg, enlisted in the U. S. Navy on Dec. 27 for four years. Potter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Potter of 1012 South Jackson, and the husband of the former Juanita Pate.

Potter, who made application for enlistment through Marion Navy Recruiter T. J. Ambrose, was sworn into the Navy as a Seaman at the St. Louis Navy Recruiting Station.

A veteran of two years army service, Potter was discharged on Jan. 14, 1954, at Fort Sheridan. While in the Army, Potter served with an artillery unit in Korea for about a year and also saw service at Fort Eustis, Va., and Thule, Greenland.

Now spending 30 days advance leave with his family, Potter will report to the Naval Receiving Station, Washington, D. C., where he will await assignment to a ship or naval shore activity.

Sunday School Lesson

By Dr. Archie E. Brown
Pastor First Baptist Church
Vandalia, Ill.

'The Church's One Foundation'

Matthew 16:13-19; Ephesians 2:19-22

GOLDEN TEXT: "And he is the head of the body, the church; who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence." (Colossians 1:18).

INTRODUCTION — With this lesson we begin a three month's study about the origin and nature of the church. The importance of this subject demands that all Sunday School teachers and pupils should make the very best preparation.

There have been periods in history when the church has attempted to gain power over the state, or government, which is wrong. God never intended the church to have power over and run the civil government. On the other hand, some folks today have reduced the church to the status of a social club. This is the other extreme and is equally as contrary to God's teaching concerning His church.

When people come to know the real purpose of the church, they love to and want to serve God through it.

I. THE CHURCH'S FOUNDATION (Matt. 16:13-17)

"Whom say ye that I am?" This is the question that Jesus put to his disciples. It is the question that God puts to you today.

Now, please note this: The answer to that question is what Christ built his church upon. The true church is built upon the faith of his followers in Christ. The faith that he is the "Christ the Son of the living God." This faith is the rock which forms the foundation upon which Christ builds his church.

II. GOD'S PROMISE (Matt. 16:18-19)

God has promised that the church shall not fail in its battle with the forces of evil. There have been times when it seemed as if the church would be forced into defeat. However, God will never break any promise He has given. His church will be victorious.

The church has great power. This power is not delegated to a few leaders. It is given to each individual who is a "born again" follower of Christ. Every Christian has the right to declare the forgiveness of one who truly believes in Christ and to sure judgment of God upon one who rejects Him.

"I have the keys to hell." The word means "holes" or "the grave—the place of the dead." Yes, Jesus holds the keys to both. He can bring Elijah and Moses and Lazarus out of the grave. When Jesus brings forth all believers from the graves then His kingdom will come, and His will be done in earth as it is in heaven.

When he told Peter: "I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom, and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven," he was speaking to Peter as a representative of all Christians. If you do not believe this, please turn just one page in your Bible to Matthew 18:18 and hear Jesus speak to the whole company of his followers these words: "Verily I say unto you: Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Jesus gave Peter no special power in the church. The keys are given to all followers of Christ. Actually this promise was given, not to the church, but to the Kingdom.

III. THE BUILDING OF THE FOUNDATION (Eph. 2:19-22)

If a building is to stand through all the storms, it must have a good, solid foundation. This the church has! The church was begun on faith. A few men believed that, "Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God." Upon this faith the church started to build. Faith in Christ is a solid foundation for, not only a church, but a life as well.

Every Christian is a stone in the church. "We are living stones"

THE PROFESSOR

It's not so many years since I played in the Friday Afternoon String Quartet at Professor Johnson's house. I'm the one by the bookshelves, with the violin.

During those sessions, I sometimes wished I were outdoors kicking a football around. Yet if the Professor had told me to go, I would have been disappointed.

Even as a kid, I realized what a good and kind man Mr. Johnson was. We used to see him in Church every Sunday—I don't think he ever missed—and he did so many fine things. When he died, our minister said that he had been truly humble, and therefore truly great.

Our minister is a wonderful man, too. I should know—I've been going to his church all my life. . . . Our church!

These then have been the three great influences in my life—the professor, our minister, and my parents. They have placed my feet on the path I hope to follow always. Now the rest of the way, with God's help, is up to me.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor for on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

es." we read in 1 Peter 2:5. If you are a Christian, you are a stone in the church that Christ is building. You may not look like much to anyone else on earth, but to Christ you are a necessary part of his building. Never take your responsibility lightly.

CONCLUSION — Our Lord is the chief cornerstone (Eph. 2:20), and his disciples and Apostles are parts of the foundation of his church. Those who know him as personal Savior, are stones in his church. Best of all, there is victory awaiting his church, because not even the "gates of hell (evil forces) can prevail against it."

Stokes Sparks
Royals' Victory
Over Warriors

By United Press
Maurice Stokes left little doubt in the minds of the Philadelphia Warriors today that he's the man who makes the Cincinnati Royals click.

The 6-7, 235-pound Stokes sparked the Royals to a 106-94 victory over the Warriors Friday night to make it two straight victories since he returned to action after three weeks of injury-enforced idleness. Stokes scored 11 points and seized 28 rebounds in 39 minutes.

Philadelphia is at Detroit today in a TV game and Boston at Syracuse tonight.

Salukis Tangle
Tonight with Illinois Wesleyan

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Southern Illinois University cagers, third-place winners in the All-American Tournament at Owensboro, Ky. earlier this week, tangle with Illinois Wesleyan here tonight.

Probable SIU starters will be Larry Whitlock, 6-5, Mt. Vernon and Seymour Bryson, 6-4, Quincy, at forwards; Marvin Jones, 6-3, East St. Louis, center; and Warren Talley, 6-3, Pinckneyville, and Gene Sams, 5-10, Alton, at guards.

In capturing third place at the All-American meet, Southern tripped a tough Washington and Lee team from Lexington, Va., 69-66, after losing an opening encounter to Kentucky Wesleyan in a 61-59 heart-breaker. West Virginia—currently rated as the nation's number one basketball power—was able to defeat Washington and Lee by only five points, 74-69, two weeks ago.

Ohio University, eight-point winner over Indiana University in its season's opener, turned back Kentucky Wesleyan, 83-70, in the championship game.

Whitlock, who scooped 20 points against Washington and Lee, paces the Salukis in scoring this season with 122 points in eight games—an average of 15.3. Bryson leads the rebound parade with Jones close behind.

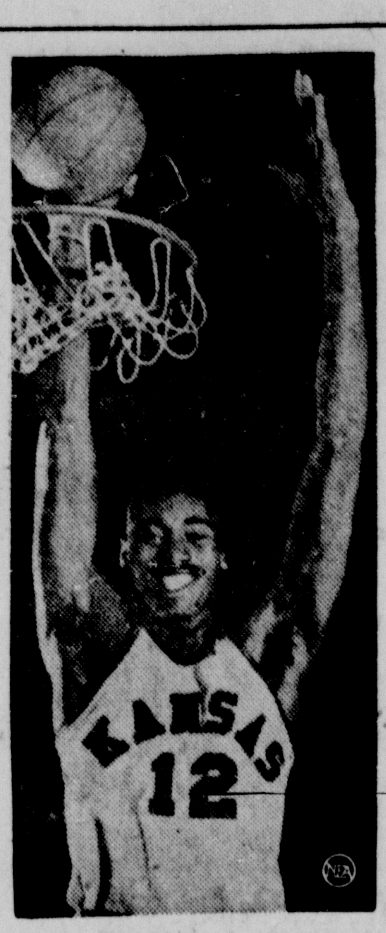

SIU Coach Lynn Holder had nothing but praise for his team's slowing against Washington and Lee. "We played a great defensive game, stopping their fast break," said Holder, "and we worked the ball in for good shots."

Southern sports only a 3-5 record, but three of the defeats have been by only two points and one by a single marker.

After playing Wesleyan Saturday, Southern will prepare for two very important Interstate Conference tilts at Western Illinois and Illinois Normal next week end (Jan. 10-11). SIU has a 1-0 league record.

Red Birds Trail Entire Game, Score Free
Shot in Final Seconds

By United Press
West Frankfort bumped off the previously unbeaten defending state champions from Herrin Friday night in the major upset so far in the high school basketball season.

The Redbirds nipped Herrin, 63-62. It was Herrin's first loss in 12 games, and West Frankfort's 10th victory in 11 games.

Only time West Frankfort was ahead in the game was in the last five seconds when Herrin's Willie Williams fouled Frankfort's Vlado Zavich, who made the first free shot in a one-and-one situation to put Coach George Iubell's Red Birds out in front, 63-62.

In those last five seconds Herrin shot once, missed, and Frankfort took the rebound just before the game ended.

Frankfort started off poorly, hitting only two of 15 the first quarter while the Tigers were making eight of 14, to trail 20-10 as the period ended. At halftime Herrin had increased the margin to 39-26 and at one time in the third stanza held a 20-point lead. But the Birds found themselves, narrowed the gap to 51-41 at the end of the third quarter and outscored the state's No. 1 team 22-11 the final period.

Frankfort connected on 19 of 60 field goal attempts to Herrin's 18 out of 48. On free throws Frankfort made 25 out of 33, Herrin 26 out of 34.

Game's high scorer was the big Red Bird, Francis Florian, who had 20 points.

Most other favorites found the going easier, including Edwardsville, Peoria, Spalding, Pekin, Mount Vernon, Jacksonville, and Rock Island.

Mount Vernon, which has lost only to West Frankfort, beat Herrin, 63-53, for its 20th triumph.

Spalding racked up its ninth straight triumph, 61-52, over Peoria Manual. Also in the Peoria area, Pekin swamped Peoria Limestone, 76-52, for its fifth victory in six outings.

Edwardsville, with only one defeat on its record, hung up victory No. 10 by a 66-47 count over Granite City. In other top southwestern games, Belleville conquered East St. Louis, 53-40, and Dupu dumped Bethalto, 67-39. Effingham St. Anthony clipped East St. Louis Lincoln, 58-53.

Jacksonville, which suffered two defeats at the Kankakee holiday tourney, started back with a 60-44 rout of Jerseyville.

Rock Island, beaten only once

Cardinals Claim
Karl Spooner, Ex-
Dodger Hurler

ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—Karl Spooner, who had just enough big-league baseball glory to whet his appetite, today embarked on a regime to restore his ailing left arm to its 1954 efficiency.

Spooner, an occasional hurler for Macon, Ga., last season, was claimed from the Brooklyn farm club for $4,000 by the St. Louis Cardinals in what they conceded was "a gamble."

And if determination and grit have anything to do with it, Spooner will pay off.

Pitched Two Shutouts
The 27-year-old left-hander, who joined the Dodgers at the tail end of the 1954 season, pitched 18 scoreless innings in his only two starts. In that brace of appearances he also struck out 15 Pittsburgh and 12 Giant batters.

But, during the next season, he compiled a so-so record of 8-6 before his arm gave way. Adhesions and calcium deposits made the pitching motion a torture for him but he never thought of giving up.

He had a fling at the winter league circuit with Puerto Rico "but I just couldn't pitch at all."

He joined the Dodgers for spring training in 1956 but could not make the big time grade. He was sent to St. Paul and was only able to pitch about 20 innings, finishing out the year with the Brooks' young hopefuls camp at Vero Beach.

Underwent Surgery
Last season, at Macon, was another one of frustration.

So last Nov. 2, he submitted to an operation for the removal of adhesions at the Long Island College Hospital.

The souvenir of that surgery is a livid, 10-inch scar inside his left arm.

Although he hesitates to make any predictions, the set of big Spooner's jaw makes it a good bet he will be pitching at Busch Stadium this summer.

HAVING A BALL—The nifty ball control of its starting five is one of the principal reasons why Seattle is so highly rated among the nation's college teams. The Falcons are, left to right, Thorn Humphries, All-America Elgin Baylor, Don Ogorek, Charley Brown and Jim Harney.

Eldorado Wins
64-51 Loop Tilt
From Metropolis

Eldorado showed Metropolis in to the Southern Illinois conference cellar Friday night by taking a 64-51 decision over the visiting Trojans. Going into the contest both Eldorado and Metropolis were victorious in the conference.

Eldorado, shooting a red-hot 51.0 on 26 hits in 51 attempts from the field, moved out in front 13-8 at the quarter and had a commanding 34-19 halftime lead. Metropolis held a three-point second half advantage, but fell far short.

Leonard Willis, veteran guard, paced the winners with 22 points, including nine field goals and four free tosses. Three others also hit in double figures in moving Eldorado to its second victory in ten starts this season—Mike McMahon had 15 and Jack Fowler and Jim Woods 11 each.

John Humma was tops for Metropolis with 18 points.

Metropolis took the preliminary, 54-50.

Tonight Eldorado plays at West Frankfort and Metropolis hosts Norris City.

Hawaii All-Stars Favored Over
Collegians In Hula Bowl Grid Game

HONOLULU (U.P.) — All serious workouts were over today for Sunday's 12th annual Hula Bowl football game with the professionally supported Hawaii All-Stars ranking favorites to win over a dream team of mainland collegiates.

Although coach Buck Shaw has 21 of the finest football players available from the senior ranks of the nation's colleges, he said Detroit's Tobin Rote and a battery of top professional receivers "have a big bulge in the passing department and we will have to concentrate on ball control or be in danger all the time."

The scores of recent Hula classics give Shaw a reason for pessimism. The past two years endings were 51-20 and 52-21 for the Hawaii All-Stars, mainly on the strength of 11 imported professional players with the backing of pretty fair boys from local semipro, college and military teams. Holiday interruptions along with other bowl commitments for several players limited pre-game serious practice to three days at the most and as little as one for such as quarterback King Hill who arrived only Friday morning after his Rice team took a shellacking from Navy in the Cotton Bowl.

Another blow to Shaw's hopes was halfback Clendon Thomas of Oklahoma, who arrived from the Orange Bowl Friday with a sprained ankle that almost assuredly eliminates him from any chance of playing.

Michigan State's James Ninowski at quarterback and back John Crow, Texas A&M, and Joe Francis and Ted Searle from Oregon State will see plenty of action for the collegians while Tobin Rote will have the help of his cousin Kyle of the Giants, Elroy Hirsch of the Los Angeles Rams, R. C. Owens of the San Francisco Forty-Niners and Frank Gifford of the Giants as multiple targets for his sharpshooting passes.

Supper Club Meets
In John C. Small Home

The supper club met Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Small for a potluck supper at 5 p. m. Some of the young people attended the quiz session at Union Chapel, following which Mary Margaret Small showed color slides of local interest to the group.

Mrs. Flossie Land, who will leave soon for a winter vacation in Albuquerque, N. M., was given a going away present. Attending the supper were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hafford and Bob, Carrier Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Henn, Mrs. Land and the John C. Small family.

Good Neighbor Club
Holds December Meeting

The Good Neighbor club recently held its December meeting in the home of Mrs. Otto Henn. Mrs. Leland Hayes presided in the absence of the president. Roll call was answered with scriptures from the story of the birth of Christ. Following the singing of "Silent Night," Mrs. Flossie Land led in prayer.

Mrs. Clifford Hafford and Mrs. Hayes won the prizes for the quiz games and names for the new sunshine friends were drawn following the opening of gifts from last year's friends. The house was decorated for the Christmas season, including a tree. Announcement was made that the club has lost several valuable members, some working away from the community and others resigning because of conflicting activities.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hill.

The club voted a cash gift to a young man to help him to go through high school. The January meeting will be with Mrs. Charles Lockwood.

The W.S.C.S. of Mt. Moriah church will meet at 1 p. m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Ora Golliber, with Mrs. Mabel Bramlet presiding. The church held a New Year's service Wednesday evening and there was a great deal of music. Rev. George J. Jenkins is the pastor of the church.

Sisters Maintain Custom
Of Christmas Together

Mrs. Walter Paterson, Mrs. Bedie Harris and Mrs. John C. Small, sisters, have spent all of their Christmases together except one when Mrs. Harris was in Michigan. The families met this year in the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Patterson and other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carlyle, Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harris of Galatia.

There was a large Christmas tree in the home with gifts for everyone under it. The turkey dinner was greatly appreciated by the guests and the bad weather did not dampen their spirits. They thanked Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and daughters, Buenita and Wilma, for the hospitality and agreed to meet with Mrs. Harris next Christmas.

Prize Photographs On Display at High School Jan. 6-9

Fifty prize photographs including the top winners in the 11th annual National High School Photographic awards will be shown at the Harrisburg Township high school Jan. 6 through Jan. 9 from 12:15 to 12:45.

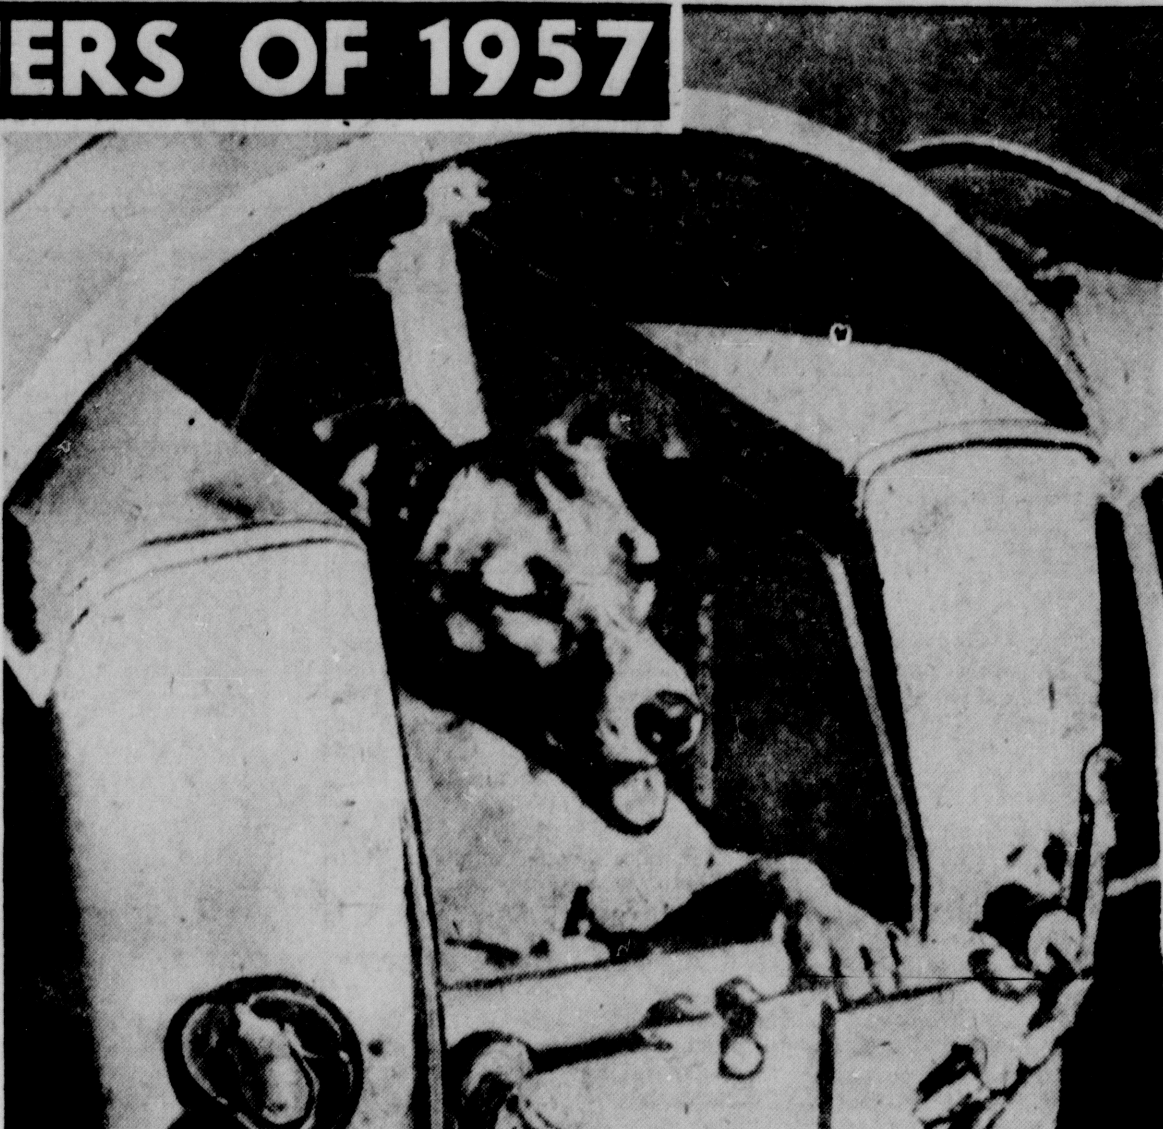

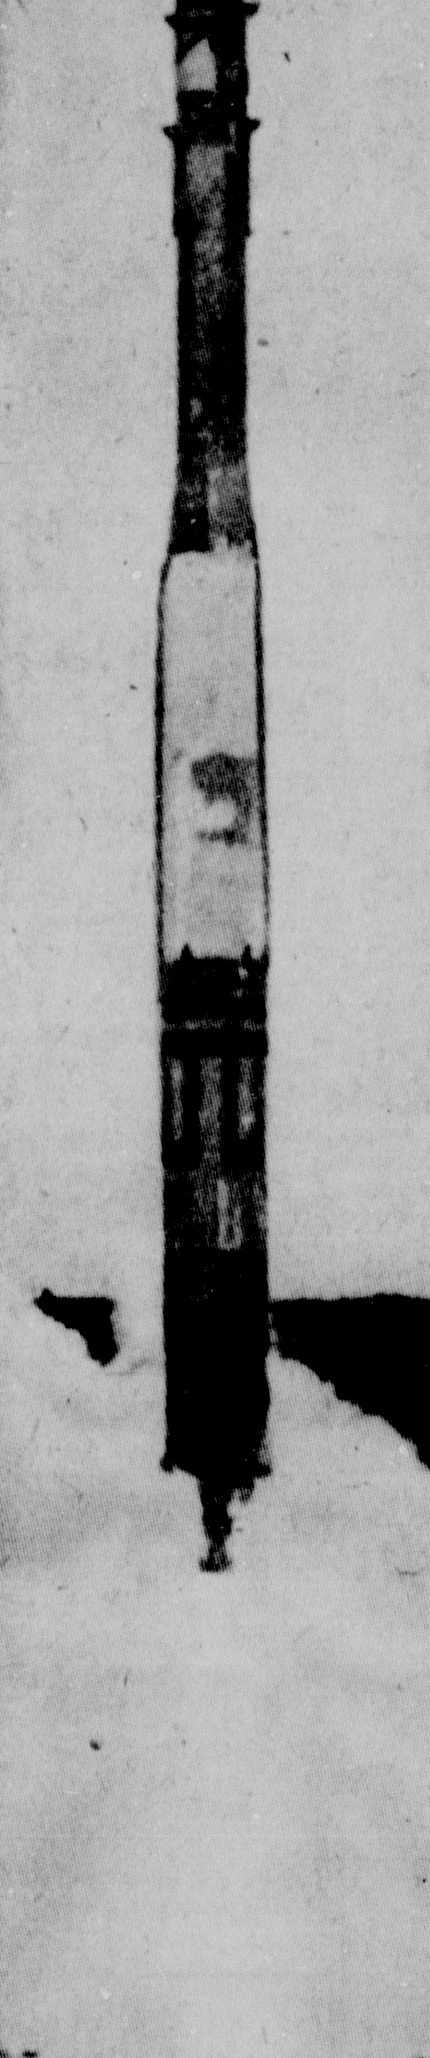

The contest, sponsored annually by Eastman Kodak Company, is generally acknowledged as the leading teen-age photo contest. It recognizes achievement in photography with cash prizes and certificate awards.

Representative of the excellent photography being done by high school students throughout the U. S. and its territories, the exhibit includes the sixteen major winners from the 1956 competition plus a selection of pictures that received Honorable Mention Awards.

Aside from pictures of school activities, which heads the categories, there is a wide variety of everyday subjects, including fun-time shots; eye stoppers for composition and scenic beauty; photos of babies and children; striking pictures of birds and animals — all captured by these alert teen-age photographers.

HEADLINERS OF 1957

BEGINS

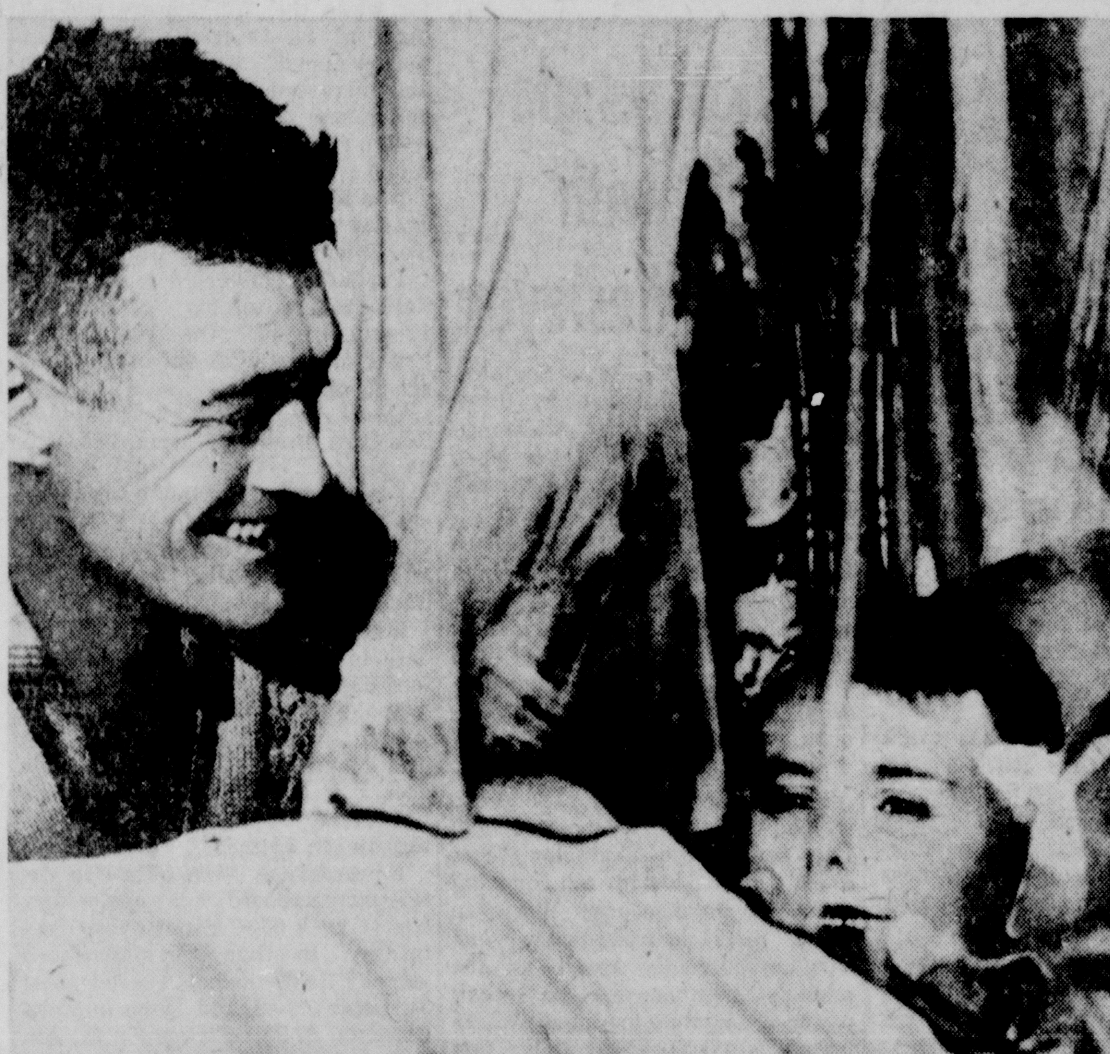

RUSSIA FORCED AHEAD in the race into space, astounding scientists by launching two instrument-packed satellites. Sputnik II, a half-ton rocket-like vehicle, carried a live dog, Laika, pictured above in its air-conditioned chamber just before takeoff. Laika orbited millions of miles through space before succumbing some 10 days after Sputnik II was launched on Nov. 3. Sputnik I, a smaller 184 pound sphere, was launched Oct. 4. Earlier the Soviets claimed to have successfully tested an intercontinental ballistic missile and said they were planning a moon rocket.

BEFORE THE ATTACK, President Eisenhower accompanied his guest, King Mohammed V of Morocco, to Blair House in Washington. Twenty-four hours after this picture was taken the White House announced that the Chief Executive had suffered a cerebral attack.

SECOND CROSSING is success as the Mayflower II sails majestically into New York Harbor. The 180-ton vessel, a replica of original Mayflower, had journeyed from Plymouth, England, to Provincetown, Mass., in 53 days.

IT WAS A STORMY YEAR for labor as a special Senate committee conducted hearings on corruption in labor and management. Among the committee's targets were Dave Beck, above, and James Hoffa, his successor as president of the giant, 1,400,000-member Teamsters Union.

U.S. LAGGED behind in satellite race. Though rockets were being tested almost daily at Cape Canaveral, Fla., and preliminary tests of Vanguard, above, were successful, there was great disappointment when the first attempt to launch a U.S. satellite failed. Highly publicized launching was failure when a three-stage Vanguard, carrying "baby" moon, exploded on ground.

PAWN IN AN inter-faith custody battle, Hildy McCoy, 6, born a Catholic, was awarded to Jewish Mr. and Mrs. Melvin B. Ellis, who had adopted her as a tiny baby.

QUEEN ELIZABETH of England and her husband, Prince Philip, captured the hearts of everyone who saw them during a whirlwind trip to Canada and the United States. In Washington, the royal couple spent four days as the guests of President and Mrs. Eisenhower at the White House. Highlights of their trip included a trip to College Park, Md., for the University of Maryland-North Carolina football game and an address by the Queen to the United Nations.

←UNLUCKY HORSESHOE was this residential street in Ruskin Heights, Mo., after it was ripped by one of year's tornadoes. Twenty-eight persons were killed, some 200 injured as the tornado swept through the suburban Kansas City area. Worst storm of the year, Hurricane Audrey, claimed 275 lives as it battered tiny Cameron on the Louisiana Gulf coast in late June.

INTEGRATION CAME TO Little Rock (Ark.) Central High when President Eisenhower ordered paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division to escort nine Negro students to school in compliance with the integration order of a federal court. Earlier, violence had erupted when the Negroes attempted to attend classes. Students above are escorted by federalized Arkansas National Guardsmen.
